The Pennsylvania Room at the Centre County Library & Historical Museum is located in the early 19th-century Georgian style Miles-Humes home at 203 North Allegheny Street in Bellefonte.

Our many valuable resources include specialized genealogy collections, original Centre County records, church and cemetery records, newspapers, Pennsylvania county histories, and abundant historical and genealogical periodicals.

Visit the Historical Museum to experience our Textile Room (displaying quilts and samplers), Sieg Room (featuring Centre County's Industrial Heritage), Linn Room (honoring this influential local family) & Community Heritage Room (highlighting everyday life in Bellefonte).
